Jerusalem

I don't always get to be in Jerusalem at For Zion's Sake outreach center with the Director, but it was a joy! Our fellowship has grown and through the years I have appreciated his wisdom and tenderness. The outreach center is in transition and please continue to pray with them through this period. I led worship and preached there on my first Shabbat while being in the land. Many were able to join us online. There was opportunity for a lot of ministry this trip, teaching online in Latvia and Switzerland, while the director's wife interpreted. I led devotions for the staff. For Zion's Sake has a unique ministry delivering bread to the poor, homeless, and Holocaust survivors. It's humbling to visit Holocaust survivors and elderly Jewish pensioners. Food is always welcomed!

I was also invited to go speak to a group of thirty summer interns at a Lutheran ministry center about Shabbat, loving Israel, and the Jewish people. They are spending the summer learning from both the Jewish and Palestinian cultures. There were many questions and an openness to the Scriptures, culture, and traditions of Israel and the Jewish community. They served us dinner and it was fun to sit afterwards and fellowship. Some friends also took me to see the tree in the background that was planted in Jerusalem's Simchoni forest, by David Ben Gurion in 1959.

New Opportunities

My many thanks to Pastors Jeff and Carol Green, for introducing us to some precious people in the Negev. Because of their work, I can only address them as O & B. They are beautiful in every way and you would not believe how God brought us together. The only day I had available they were scheduled to bring their car from the Negev to Jerusalem. Wouldn't you know it was only an 8 minute walk from where I stay to the garage where they were taking their car? When I found out they had planned to already be there and where we met, it was only a 5 minute walk for both of us! Talk about divine appointments! We are planning on working together and spending time with them in the Negev this Spring. We can trust God to work out the details. LOL! I want to make their account known should any of you feel led to bless their work!

Ramle

It's always a fun time to be with Pastor Ariel Revah in Ramle. This congregation needs our prayer desperately. Ramle is such a difficult place to serve. While I taught, I thought to myself, "no one is paying attention," but by the end several were praying and in tears as the Spirit was touching them. I know God is doing some really good things. God let there be streams in the desert!

Israel and the Jewish people are the “Apple of His eye.” We are eternally grateful for every effort you make to bless them and help us to continue to labor in His vineyard. Thank you!

Requests:

MIM has an opportunity to have office space in Jerusalem! Pray the Lord’s direction and for the finances, For each of the leaders we work with and our board members. For God to pour out His Spirit afresh on all those who are laboring for Him. God would bless, keep, and protect all our partners and always for the salvation of Israel and the nations.
